STORY OF THE PLAY

Here is the timeless story of how a young maiden named Beauty must live in the castle of a frightening Beast and whose gradual love for him breaks the curse he is under and turns him back into a prince. This lovely and often funny version of the classic story will charm your audiences. All the favorite characters are here including a likable prince, a kind, fair person even when he is a furry beast; Beauty, a beautiful young maiden who lives up to her name in spirit and self-reliance; and a wizard who wonders why the audience doesn't delight in his evilness.

Other characters include Beauty's blustery and somewhat silly father, Otto Von Gooseberry, and Beauty's sisters, Patience and Charity who have neither and definitely take after their father!

Even more humor is added by two assistants, Fenwick and Bozmo, who spend a good portion of the play under a curse as a snake and skunk.

With seven original, catchy songs that will appeal to even the youngest audience members, this musical has minimal production needs and maximum entertainment value.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

*(5 M*, 3 F)*

DREDMON: Grand Wizard of the Realm. Likes to refer to himself as “Dredmon the Magnificent.” He is vain, flamboyant, ambitious, and enjoys evil just for the fun of it.

FENWICK/SNAKE: Dredmon’s assistant, a bookworm type who loves immersing himself in magic lore. But he tends to be high-strung and nervous in times of tension, especially after Dredmon turns on him and changes him into a snake.

*PRINCE DAVID: A handsome, but somewhat naive prince. He is trying to undo some of the evil caused by his late father, the former king, and Dredmon. But, he learns the hard way it takes more than just giving orders to fix things.

*BEAST: Prince David after Dredmon has put a spell on him. He is tall, covered with fur and has large fangs.

BOZMO/SKUNK: The wiry court jester. He is playful and sarcastic but emerges as a good idea man after being turned into a skunk.

BEAUTY: Lives up to her name. She is thoughtful, hardworking and dedicated to her family. She is also very self-reliant and can be defiant and stubborn in the face of injustice.

PATIENCE: She has none. Patience is Beauty’s sister and is not only impatient, but rather lazy and shallow.

CHARITY: Beauty’s other sister. She is greedy and self-centered, and has a sharp tongue.

OTTO: The father of the three sisters. A successful merchant, he is a rotund and rather silly man who would like people to think of him as a great man. He is weak-willed but has a good heart.

*BEAST can be played either by the same actor as Prince David, or another actor.

Performance time: About 90 minutes.
